

CALLED TO MINISTRY

ACSQ Ordinands and Vocations

FIRST STEPS: If you feel that God is calling you into ministry in the Anglican Church, here's what you should do.

"I think that God is calling me to some kind of ministry."

- Pray about it.
- Ask others to pray.
- Read about vocation.
- Talk to family and trusted friends.
- Talk to your Parish Priest.
- Take on leadership in your Parish.
- Study at St Francis College.
- Visit other Anglican parishes or St John's Cathedral.

Talk to the DDOV

All welcome: Rev'd Sarah Plowman

Attend Seekers Day

All welcome: September

"I'm ready to deeply explore a vocation to the ordained ministry."

THE NEXT STEPS: The ACSQ Vocational Reflection Journey tests people's vocation to ordained ministry as Deacon and Priest.

We recommend that you:

- Enrol in some theological study at St Francis Theological College.
- Take up a volunteer ministry or leadership role in your parish.
- Meet with a Spiritual Director.

Vocational Reflection Days

By invitation: February / March

- Attend four Reflection Days
- Write essays on your Spiritual Life Story, the Nature of God, and the Priesthood/Diaconate
 - Psychological Testing
 - Theological Reflection

A STEP TOGETHER: Those who wish to be trained for ordination attend the ACSQ Vocation Discernment Conference.

"I am ready to answer the call and test my vocation formally."

A full day of interviews, activities and discussion with Advisors who will make recommendations to the Archbishop.

Vocation Discernment Conference
